ABOUT US

Charlie Bird

The New York City-based Delicious Hospitality Group was formed in 2013 by Chef / Owner Ryan Hardy. Hardy is a chef of many credentials: A four-time Best Chef James Beard Award and Rising Star finalist during his international career, set in place by his work as an organic farmer, charcuterie butcher and cheesemaker. In 2013, the team opened their first restaurant, Charlie Bird, in New York's SoHo neighborhood which quickly garnered media attention winning Eater's "Best New Restaurant." In 2016, DHG opened its second venture, Pasquale Jones in Manhattan's Little Italy. Pasquale Jones, a pizzeria and wine destination, became an instant success with its signature clam pie and sophisticated wine list.

Parcelle is a hospitality group with restaurant + wine bars based in New York City and a national online wine retail business. Their namesake location in downtown Manhattan was called one of the world's best wine bars in the Financial Times in addition to being recognized as one of New York's best wine bars by The New York Times and Wine Enthusiast. Founder Grant Reynolds, a Forbes 30 under 30 honoree and 2013 Wine & Spirits Best New Sommelier, has written two books including How To Drink Wine (2020) and The Wine List (2023).

Hidden behind a nondescript phone booth in the corner of Crif Dogs in New York's East Village is one of the most iconic bars in the world. Founded in 2007, PDT quickly rose to notoriety in the cocktail world for its innovative cocktails and genuine hospitality. The bar has been the recipient of every major cocktail accolade, including James Beard Award for outstanding Bar Program and named World's Best Bar by World's 50 Best.
